Subject: JURY SERVICE SCAM

Detroit, MI - Third Circuit Court Chief Judge Timothy M. Kenny is alerting all Wayne County residents that there is currently another scam being perpetrated regarding jury duty. Scammers are calling citizens and telling them that they have missed jury duty and they must either meet someone somewhere or provide banking, credit card, or gift card information in order to avoid being jailed.

Most scams involve an innocent person receiving a call advising she missed jury service and there is a citation for a bench warrant. The citation must be paid immediately or she will be subject to arrest or an arrest warrant will be issued. The scam artist may identify himself as a law enforcement or court deputy and provide a badge number and phone number. The scam artist may ask for the person's name, address, social security number. The scam artist may tell the person to stay on the phone and not attempt to disconnect. The scam artist may direct the person meet them with cash or purchase gift cards and provide the numbers off the back of the card to pay the citation. THIS IS A SCAM.

The Third Judicial Circuit Court does not initiate calls about missed jury service.

The Third Judicial Circuit Court will not ask for your social security number or other private information.

If you receive a call about missed jury service, do not respond to this phone call or pay anyone any sum of money. Obtain as much information as you can about the caller and report it to your local police department.

If you missed jury duty in the Third Judicial Circuit Court, you will not receive a phone call requesting money and threatening arrest.
