Subject: Jury Service for the Wayne County Third Circuit Court is suspended until Mid-August

Detroit, MI – Chief Judge Timothy M. Kenny has announced that the Wayne County Third Circuit Court is suspending jury service until the week of August 17, 2020. Jurors who have received a jury summons or a postcard advising them to appear prior to August 17, 2020 will not have to appear. Their service will automatically be dismissed. These jurors do not have to take any additional action.

The Third Circuit Court continues to operate under the Michigan Supreme Court's Administrative Orders regarding the state of emergency and continues to take actions to ensure that the jurors, court users, and the public may remain home.

Jurors who have additional questions or concerns regarding jury service may contact The Jury Service Department as follows:
