Third Judicial Circuit of Michigan announces remote operations on May 29 for the Detroit Grand Prix

The Third Judicial Circuit of Michigan will have remote services only for Court operations normally held at the Coleman A. Young Municipal Center (CAYMC) on Friday, May 29 because of the start of the 2026 Chevrolet Detroit Grand Prix. Other court locations at the Criminal Justice Center, the Lincoln Hall of Justice and the Penobscot Building will maintain full operations on May 29. Normal operations will resume at CAYMC on Monday, June 1.

Numerous Grand Prix events will start on May 29 and continue through Sunday, May 31, with the featured race. All parties, including jurors and court visitors can expect surrounding street closures and high traffic volume throughout the week of May 25, and should plan accordingly as that week progresses.
