Subject: Response to Confirmed Coronavirus Cases

Detroit, MI – The Wayne County Third Circuit Court has learned that two of its employees have been diagnosed with the Coronavirus, Covid-19. One of the employees works at the Friend of the Court in the Penobscot Building and would have been in contact with staff and the public. That employee was diagnosed on March 16, 2020 and was last at work on March 13, 2020.

The other employee works at the Frank Murphy Hall of Justice (Pretrial Services), left work ill on March 18, 2020 and was diagnosed on the same day.

The Court's Administrative team is in the process of tracing the employees' contacts with co-workers to advise them of their contact. The Team has been in contact with the various Departments of Health. Chief Judge Kenny has advised the elected officials of the County Departments that have staff who may have interacted with these employees.

The Mission of Third Judicial Circuit Court is to provide accessible and equal justice with timely dispute resolution. The Third Judicial Circuit has jurisdiction over Civil, Criminal, and Family matters arising in the County of Wayne. The National Center for State Courts has cited the Third Circuit Court as one of the model urban courts in the United States for case flow management and the timely disposition of the Court's docket.
