present

Everyday Legal Issues Workshops

Meet with representatives from the Wayne County Friend of the Court,
The Michigan Legal Help of Wayne County, and
The Salvation Army's William Booth Legal Clinic.

There will be opportunities to gather information to help solve your everyday legal issues.

Participants attending this program will:

- Have an opportunity for a brief legal consultation on family law issues.
- Receive free information on the Expungement process: There is even an online process that can help prepare the forms in many instances.
- Have an opportunity to ask child support questions: motion packets will be available to help address arrearages and child support issues.
