DOCKET DIRECTIVE 1986-9

SUBJECT: POST JUDGMENT PROCEEDINGS ON CASES INCLUDED
IN THE TRIAL BACKLOG REDUCTION PROGRAM

EFFECTIVE DATE: JULY 23, 1986

Following the entry of a dispositive order, in any of the above cases, by Judge Garber or Judge Brzezinski at the special conference, or by the assigned trial judge, each case remains the responsibility of the judge entering the dispositive order during the period of this program. Therefore, all subsequent motions or other post-judgment matters brought during the period of this program will be heard by the judge who entered the dispositive order. In the event that Judge Garber, Judge Brzezinski, or the assigned trial judge (if other than a regular circuit judge) is unable to hear motions or other post judgment matters during the period of the program, such matters shall be heard by the originally assigned regular circuit judge.

At the conclusion of the Trial Backlog Reduction Program, all motions or other post judgment matters shall be brought before the originally assigned regular circuit judge.
