DOCKET DIRECTIVE 1986-12

SUBJECT: 1986 ELECTION MATTERS

EFFECTIVE DATE: NOVEMBER 3, 1986

In order to insure a prompt and consistent response to any and all matters that may arise as a result of the election to take place on Tuesday, November 4th, all cases or proceedings that arise out of election procedures on that date shall be assigned to Judge Robert J. Colombo, Jr. This applies to all such matters, whether they arise during normal working hours or not. Judge Colombo will follow the emergency procedures approved by the Supreme Court.

All other emergency matters will be handled by the regularly assigned emergency judge. The normal procedures, requiring that the Court Administrator (1-994-1520) be contacted first for any matter arising after work hours, should be used for both election and non-election emergencies.

William B. McIntyre, Jr., Assistant Corporation Counsel, is the attorney assigned to the Election Commission. To the extent practicable he must be notified of all pertinent matters prior to hearing and will make himself available to appear on ninety minutes' notice.
